

contact: sandra.heinsch@uibk.ac.at / walter.kuntner@uibk.ac.at

„The long 7th century BCE“ in the South Caucasus
A Time of Collapse and Transformation

International Conference with Workshop

December 11th 2019

Program

Wednesday, December 11th 2019

Seminarraum 5 Atrium, „Raum der Schrift“

- 10:00 An Introduction: Some thoughts and notes on “The long 7th century BCE” in the South Caucasus. A Time of Collapse and Transformation?
Walter Kuntner, Innsbruck
- Archaeological Researches in the Armenian Highlands: Recent Discoveries regarding the Urartian and Post-Urartian Periods*
Roberto Dan, Rome
- The End of the Kingdom – a rapid event or dynamic change, seen from Metsamor perspective*
Krzysztof Jakubiak, Warsaw

11:30 Discussion

Lunch (12:00-14:00)

Seminarraum 4, Atrium

Workshop on Pottery

- 14:00-15:30
- The distribution and deposition of kitchenwares and tablewares in the late Urartian house from Metsamor*
Mateusz Iskra, Warsa

Some remarks about Urartian Pottery in the light of recent excavations in Armenia
Priscilla Vitolo, Rome

The “long 7th century BCE”: Continuity or Transformation, seen from the Aramus perspective
Sandra Heinsch, Innsbruck

Coffee break (15:30-16:00)

- 16:00-16:30 Poster presentation
- Urartu and the Post-Urartian Periods (Results from ongoing archaeological projects):*
- Urartian Fortresses in Medieval Times*
Pascal Kositz
- The long 7th century and beyond – Continuity at Oshakan?*
Claudia Ginthart
- Urartian Cylinder Seals*
Angelina Rainer

16:30 Kickoff Projekt Meeting (closed session)