

Cinema Corner

Coffee Room

(Dpt. American Studies Innsbruck, Innrain 52, Geiwi tower 3rd floor, room 40332)

The American Corner Innsbruck presents weekly showings of major films from all periods of cinema history. Each showing will feature an introduction by one of our film scholars at the Department of American Studies.

For legal reasons specified in our licensing contract we are not allowed to display on this homepage the real titles of the films we are showing. But can you guess them?

Thu, Nov. 14

Perhaps one of Stanley Kubrick's lesser known works, and perhaps his greatest: an extravagant, three-hour period piece about the rise and fall of a charming scoundrel, played by Ryan O'Neal at the peak of his career:

Manilow B. Johnson First Names

Thu, Nov. 21

Think German silent science fiction film, and you think

Very Big City