“Taking Stock – One Year of the Obama Administration”

A video conference with

Professor David M. Rowe

Associate Professor of Political Science, Director of International Studies
Kenyon College

Thursday, January 21, 2010

5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Studio A (GeiWi, 2nd floor, Abteilung Neue Medien und Lerntechnologien)

Moderation: Meg White, Cultural Attaché, U.S. Embassy Vienna

David M. Rowe has been teaching international relations, comparative politics, and political economy in the Department of Political Science and in the Department of Economics since fall 2001. He previously taught at Ohio State University. He has been the recipient of several prestigious grants and awards, including a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship in International Peace and Security and grants from the National Science Foundation. He has been a resident fellow at Harvard's Center for International Affairs and Stanford's Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences. Rowe's research has focused on two major themes in international relations: economic sanctions and the causes of World War I. He has developed a nationally recognized course in terrorism in the aftermath of the September 11 attacks.

Professor Rowe holds a Ph.D. from Duke University, an M.A. from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, and a B.A. from Davidson College.

Please register your attendance by January 19, 2010 (americancorner@uibk.ac.at or 0512/507-7064).

Looking forward to welcoming you to this ACI event,

Univ.-Prof. Mag. Dr. Gudrun M. Grabher
Director, American Corner Innsbruck
