The
American Corner Innsbruck

Invites you to an info session on Studying in the U.S.

Featuring Alexandra Enzi
Austrian Program Officer and Educational Advisor
Austrian-American Educational Commission

Monday, 14 May 2012, 17.00/5:00pm
Hörsaal 1, Josef-Moeller-Haus, Innrain 52

This session is planned to help give general information about studying in the United States and will address such topics as how to choose a university, pros and cons, funding, and more; as well as more specific information about opportunities through the University of Innsbruck and about opportunities through the Fulbright organization. A variety of informative publications will also be available free of charge at this information session. There is no cost and the event is open to the public.
