

U.S. Embassy Vienna

U.S. Embassy Vienna together with Today's Voices presents:

Green Entrepreneurship in the U.S

A roundtable discussion with Mike Lin, founder & CEO of Fenix International

Thursday, November 13, 2014 at 6pm

Amerika Haus - Friedrich-Schmidt-Platz 2, 1010 Vienna (U2 Rathaus)

Please RSVP to: todayvoices@usembassy.at

Come join us for a lively discussion on the importance of Green Entrepreneurship in our modern business world.

Refreshments and snacks will be provided at a reception afterwards.

Mike Lin is the founder & CEO of Fenix International, a venture-backed renewable energy company with offices in East Africa and Silicon Valley. Lin previously founded Vestal Design, an award-winning design firm, and B.MINIMA, an eco-solutions company. He has consulted for Apple on climate change and environmental toxins and worked with former Vice President Al Gore on the "Inconvenient Truth" presentation.
