THE TIES THAT BIND

The Ties That Bind is a powerful meditation on political responsibility and personal loss as seen through the story of the filmmaker's mother, who grew up in Nazi Germany. The Ties That Bind engages us in a profound search for an understanding of history, and challenges us in our responsibility for the present. – Outcast Films, 55 minutes, B&W, USA, 1984, 16 mm.

Stefan Ringler and Sebastian Schwald will introduce the film. Attendance is free and open to the public.
