

Curatorium Pro Agunto

makes a difference

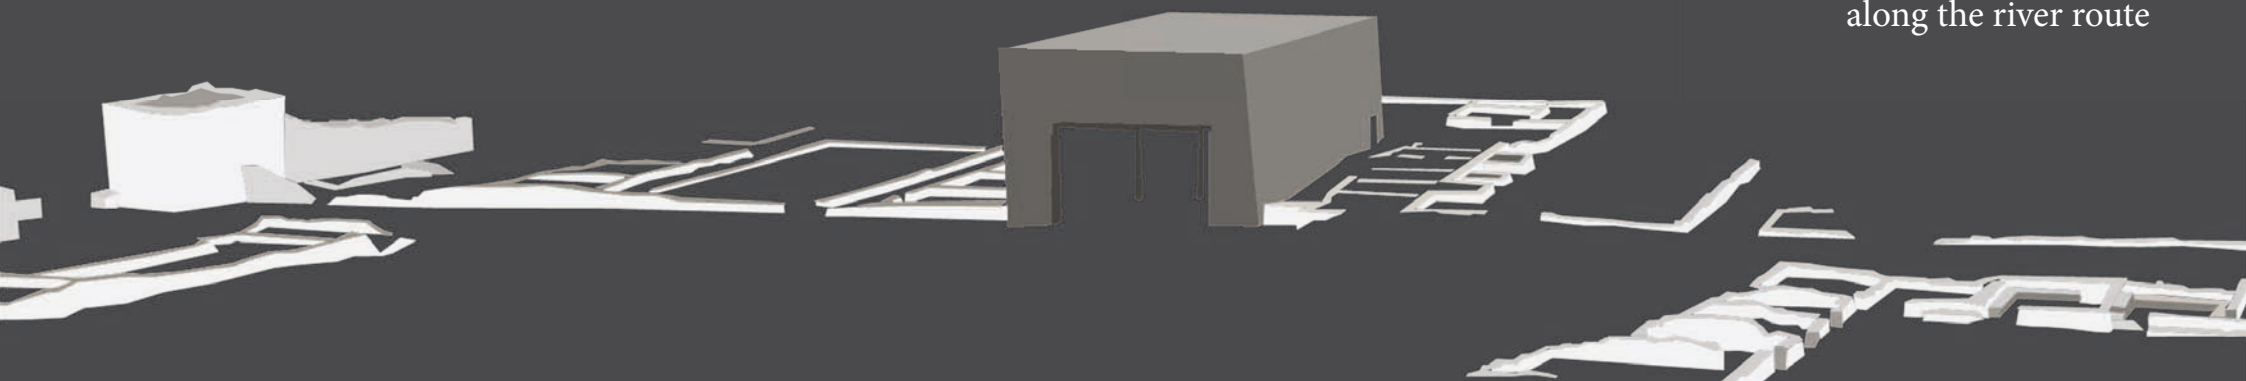

RÖMISCHE SIEDLUNGEN AN DER DRAU

ROMAN SETTLEMENTS ALONG THE DRAVA RIVER

Waren- und Ideentransfer
entlang der Flussroute

Transfer of commodities and ideas
along the river route

Veranstalter:

Institut für Archäologien, Universität Innsbruck /
Curatorium pro Agunto
Layout / Graphik: M. Auer / E. Waldhart

Roman Settlements along the Drava River

3./4. November 2016
Grabungshaus Aguntum, Stribach 97, A-9991 Dölsach

2nd Aguntum-Workshop

Thursday, 03. 11. 2016

08.30 Participants Registration

09:00 Opening speeches

09.40-10.00

Gerhard Tomedi, Die Drau in der Eisenzeit

10.00-10.20

Ada Gabucci „... impuri aqu(a)e Padi nec minus et Savi ira<m> ... Importation and distribution of gaulish samian ware in Northern Italy.

10.20-10.40

Massimo Capulli, Stefano Magnani, The Stella River and the system: connections between the Upper Adriatic and the hinterland

10.40-11.00

Jana Horvath, The navigable route along the Ljubljanica and Sava rivers – the role of Nauportus

11.00-11.20 Coffee Break

11.20-11.40

Michael Tschurtschenthaler, Marmor als Mittel öffentlicher und privater Repräsentation in Aguntum

11.40-12.00

Martin Auer, A river port in Aguntum?

12.00-12.20

Franz Glaser, Das Navale und die Maritimi in Teurnia

12.20-12.40

Katharina Ramstetter, Handelsgeschichte in Teurnia am Beispiel der Amphoren aus dem Areal HA

12.40-14.00 Lunch Break (Lunch will be held at the venue)

14.00-15.00 Visit to the Museum Aguntum

15.00-16.00 Pottery display and Poster Session

16.00-16.20 Coffee Break

16.20-16.40

Heimo Dolenz, Eleni Schindler-Kaudelka, Ein frühromischer Katastrophenbefund an der Glan bei Willersdorf

16.40-17.00

Richard Drotleff, Zwei römische Holzbrücken bei Rosegg in Kärnten

17.00-17.20

Josef Eitler, Kultkontinuität am Gipfel des Hemmabergs - Ein Heiligtum im Wandel der Zeit

17.20-17.40

Zvezdana Modrijan, Changes along the Slovenian part of the Drava river in the Late Roman period

18:15-19:15 Optional Guided Tour in Lienz

19:30 Dinner

Friday, 04. 11. 2016

09.00-09.20

Josef Gspurning, Susanne Lamm, Patrick Marko, Von Flavia Solva nach Virunum – GIS-basierte Analyse des Transportaufwandes, dargestellt anhand ausgewählter Routen

09.20-09.40

Julia Rabitsch, A brief history of Flavia Solva in ceramics

09.40-10.00

Jure Krajsek, Pottery Production in the Municipium Claudium Celeia

10.00-10.20

Michael Unterwurzacher, Marmor aus Gummern – Vorkommen, Verwendung, Bestimmung der Herkunft

10.40-11.00 Coffee Break

11.00-11.20

Mojca Vomer Gojkovič, Poetovio – an important economic and trade centre

11.20-11.40

Evgen Lazar, New archaeological discoveries from the heart of the Roman Poetovio. The results of archaeological excavations between 2009 and 2014

11.40-12.00

Maja Janežič, Eleni Schindler Kaudelka, The pottery finds from excavations in Vičava in Roman Poetovio (Slovenia)

12.00-13.20 Lunch Break (Lunch will be held at the venue)

13.20-13.40

Ivan Žižek, The influence of the military on the development of Poetovio

13.40-14.00

Tino Leleković, Aelia Mursa – Gates of the Drava River

14.00-14.20

Slavica Filipović, Vladimir Kusik, Roman bricks and roof-tiles with workshop stamps from Mursa: archaeological research in Campus 2001 - 2015

14.20-16.00 Visit to the Archaeological Park Aguntum

List of Posters

Daniela Cottica, Luigi Fozzati, Paola Ventura, A River and its town. Organizing river banks in an urban context: the case of Aquileia

Fatima Häberling, Marmorne Wandverkleidungsplatten aus dem Forum von Aguntum

Yvonne Seidel, Neue Überlegungen zum Forum der römischen Stadt Teurnia - Das Fundmaterial der Grabungen 2013 und 2014