NORA FOSTER STOVEL

“FIRE ALONG THE FRONTIER”

REGULATED RAGE IN CAROL SHIELDS'S ACADEMIC SATIRE SWANN

Shield's 1987 novel Swann: A Mystery reveals her rage towards misogyny and academe, which she satirizes acutely through her characters. Stovel will argue revenge resulting from personal injuries and insults to be Shields's motive for writing Swann.

Rebelling against traditional forms of fiction as well as possessing a feminist agenda, “Shields gives us a scintillating new form of fiction: comic metacriticism.” –
Nora Foster Stovel
