LIFE IN CANADA

Stereotypes of Canada

Isn't Canada the same as the U.S.?

Canada is only nature

Canadians live in igloos

"Sorry,
thank you,
excuse me"

Canadians are British or French

It snows
all year round!

They pour maple syrup on everything!

Canada is a vast and uninhabited land

Canada is cold!

Canada is entrepreneurial

IEC program: working holiday

Working Holiday

Fund your vacation with temporary work in Canada.

This category is for you if:

- You don't have a job offer yet
- You want to work for more than one employer in Canada
- You want to work in more than one location
- You'd like to earn some money so that you can travel

type of work permit = open work permit

→ lets you work at most jobs in Canada. However, there are some jobs where you'll have to get a medical exam first.

IEC program: Young Professionals

Young Professionals

Gain Canadian professional work experience to better compete in a global economy.

This category is for you if:

- You have a job offer in Canada that contributes to your professional development
- You'll work for the same employer in the same location during your stay in Canada
- Under this category, work must be:
 - paid
 - not self-employed

type of work permit = employer-specific work permit

→ Your employer must meet all labour laws in the province or territory you plan to work including meeting minimum wage requirements. Please check other regulations online (cic.gc.ca)

IEC program: International Co-op Internship

International Co-op Internship

Get valuable overseas work experience related to your field of study

This category is for you if:

- you're a student registered at a post-secondary institution
- you have a job offer for a work placement or internship in Canada
- you need to do this work placement or internship to complete your studies
- you'll work for the same employer in the same location during your stay in Canada

type of work permit = employer-specific work permit

→ The internship you are offered in Canada must be directly linked to your field of studies. Wages must follow the labour laws in the province or territory you will be working in. The labour code of the province or territory will determine if an internship needs to be paid or not.

Please check other regulations online (cic.gc.ca)

Comparing costs of living

2018 Cost of Living Rankings compares top cities around the world

Mercer's Cost of Living research assists multinational organizations to compensate employees fairly when placing them on international assignments.

Canada's largest and most expensive cities are relatively more affordable than many other cities around the world.
