

Call for Papers

Annual Meeting of the Austrian Economic Association (NOeG)

June 24-25, 2021

University of Innsbruck | SFB “Credence Goods, Incentives and Behavior”

“(Un)Ethical Behavior in Markets”

There is a heated debate on whether markets erode ethical behavior. The annual conference of the Austrian Economic Association aims at discussing theoretical, empirical, behavioral, and experimental aspects of un(ethical) behavior in markets. The organizers invite submissions of full papers in all areas in Economics and Finance. Especially welcome are submissions that address, among other related topics, dishonesty, lying, (im)moral and (un)ethical behavior in Economics, Finance, and Science.

Keynote Speakers

Philipp Kircher
Cornell University

George Loewenstein
Carnegie Mellon University

Paper Submission

We invite papers on the conference topic as well as all other fields of economics to be submitted until February 28, 2021 via <https://www.conftool.com/noeg-2021/>. Notification regarding acceptance will be sent out by March 31, 2021.

Publication of Papers

After peer-review accepted papers may be published in a special conference issue of Empirica: Journal of European Economics. In case you would like your paper to be considered for the special issue please indicate this on the submission website.

Young Economist Award

The Austrian Economic Association offers a prize of EUR 750 for outstanding papers – to be presented at the conference – by economists up to the age of 35 years. For joint papers, this age limit holds for all co-authors. Please indicate your eligibility for the award on the submission website.

Registration

Please register for the conference by June 10, 2021 the latest. The conference fee amounts to EUR 100 and is waived for NOeG members (membership is EUR 55 per year – see www.noeg.ac.at).
