

„How-to“ manage a torrential protection system in a holistic way

IWEK – a top down approach

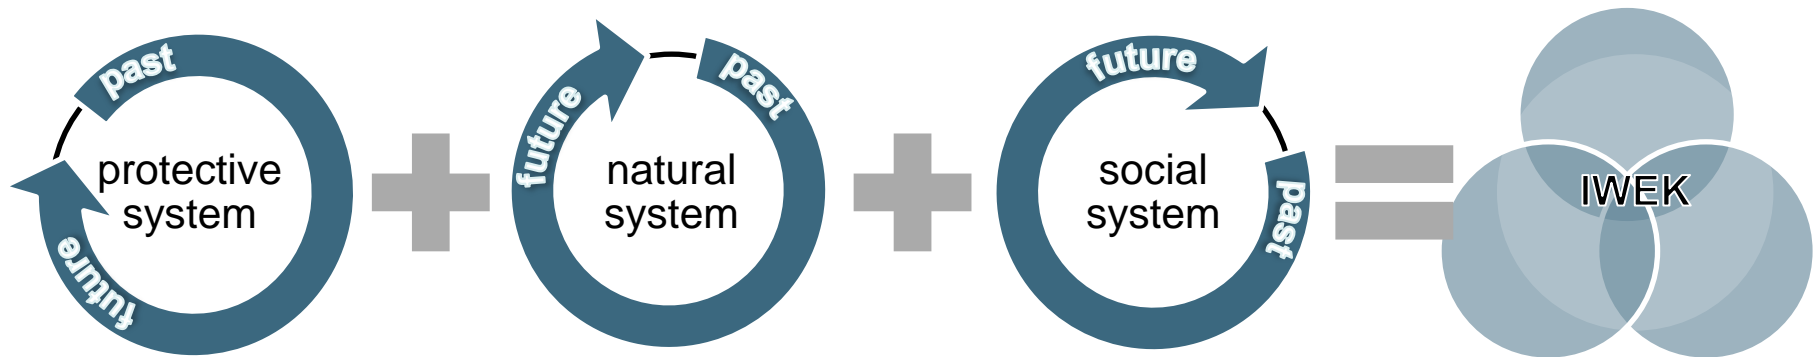

Motivation

- high number of broken structural measures
- high costs for rehabilitation
- different boundary conditions nowadays

Definition

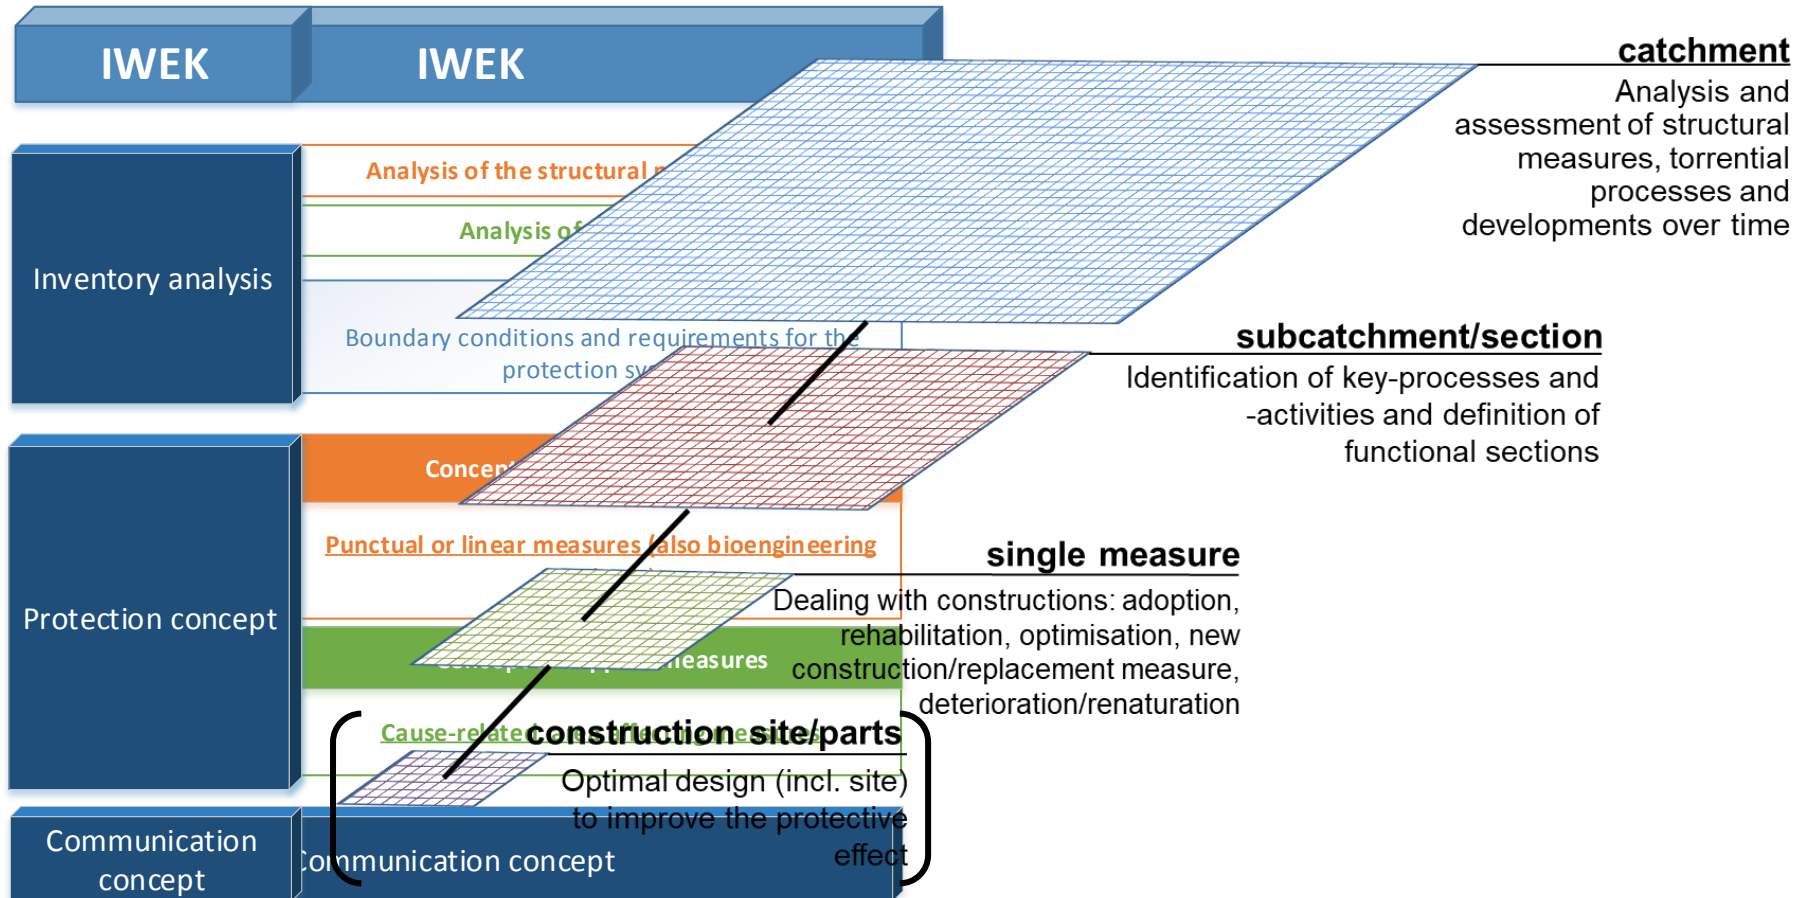

- long-term planning of protection measures
- consideration of the entire catchment over time
- participation of local stakeholders, administrations and authorities

IWEK structure

consideration levels

(focus on structural measures)

„How-to“ manage a torrential protection system in a holistic way

IWEK – a top down approach

