

6th Workshop of eeecon

Thursday, October 4 2012

Fakultätssitzungssaal – SoWi-Building

Morning

- 10:00 Welcome by Matthias Sutter
- 10:00 – 10:30 Markus Walzl: Auctions versus fixed prices - theory and evidence from ticket sale
- 10:30 – 11:00 Kupfer Alexander: Performance-sensitive government bonds
- 11:00 – 11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30 – 12:00 Florian Hauser: Learning in a repeated minority game - an agent-based simulation with genetic programming
- 12:00 – 12:30 Fritz Sindermann: Do banks lend less in uncertain times?

Lunch

- 12:30 – 14:00 Lunch at “Il Dottore”

Afternoon

- 14:00 – 14:30 Matthias Stefan: Markets can eliminate behavioral biases. Laboratory evidence on the impact of risk, ambiguity and skewness on asset prices
- 14:30 – 15:00 Björn Vollan: Authoritarian norms and democracy – experimental evidence from China
- 15:00 – 15:30 Matthias Sutter: Getting more patient - The development of time preferences in children
- 15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00 – 17:00 Keynote by Armin Falk: Morals and markets

Presenters have 30 minutes time (including discussion). The last presenter in each session is kindly asked to chair the session.