§ 1 Allocation

According to § 54 Universities Act 2002, the Bachelor's Programme Business Law is grouped among the legal studies.

§ 2 Qualification Profile

The Bachelor's Programme Business Law prepares legal experts for activities in economic and economy-oriented companies. Graduates of the programme have a general legal knowledge in content and methodology as well as specific business legal and economic basic skills. They are able to autonomously solve problems in terms of law and economy by means of legal methodology. Their high problem-solving skills, based on this university training, prepare students for activities in relevant economic and scientific occupational fields on national and international level. These occupational fields include e.g. tax consultancy, auditing, business consultancy, banking, insurance companies and other companies with legal departments and HR.

At the same time, the Bachelor's Programme Business Law serves as basic studies for the Master's Programme Business Law, which is intended to deepen legal knowledge, in particular business legal and economic skills, and prepares for legal professions such as notary, lawyer, judge, attorney and administrative lawyer.

§ 3 Scope and Duration

The Bachelor's Programme Business Law covers 180 ECTS-Credits, with a duration of six semesters. One ECTS-Credit is equivalent to a work-load of 25 hours.

§ 4 Admission

Admission to the study programme is granted by the rectorate according to the Universities Act regulations 2002.

§ 5 Types of courses and maximum number of students per course

(1) Courses without continuing performance assessment:

1. Lectures (VO) are courses held in lecture format. They introduce the research areas, methods and schools of thought for a given subject.
2. Orientation courses (SL) aim to provide the students with an outline of essential elements of the programme and its subsequent courses of study; they also aim to provide students with a solid basis on which to make personal decisions concerning their choice of study program. Maximum number of participants: 160

(2) Courses with continuing performance assessment:

1. Introductory seminars (PS) introduce students interactively to scientific literature through the treatment of selected issues. They convey knowledge and methods of academic work. Maximum number of participants: 40
2. Seminars (SE) provide in-depth treatment of scientific topics through students' presentations and discussion thereof.
3. Practical courses (UE) focus on the practical treatment of concrete scientific tasks within an area. Maximum number of participants: 40

4. Lectures with integrated practical parts (VU) focus on the practical treatment of concrete scientific tasks that are discussed during the lecture parts of the course. Maximum number of participants: 160

§ 6 Allocation of places in courses with a limited number of participants

In courses with a limited number of participants, course places are allocated as follows:

1. Students for whom the study duration would be extended due to the postponement are to be given priority.
2. If the criteria in No 1 do not suffice, first, students for whom this course is part of a compulsory module are to be given priority, and second, students for whom this course is part of an elective module.
3. If the criteria in No 1 and 2 do not suffice, the available places are drawn by random.

§ 7 Studies Induction and Orientation Stage

- (1) The Studies Induction and Orientation Stage covers one semester (30 ECTS-Credits).
- (2) The Studies Induction and Orientation Stage requires the following course examinations, which may be repeated twice, to be completed successfully:
 1. SL Private Law - General Part I (2 h, 4 ECTS-Credits, § 8 No 1 lit a)
 2. SL Introduction to Business Law (1 h, 1 ECTS-Credits, § 8 No 1 lit b).
- (3) Passing the examinations specified in paragraph 2 permits students to attend all further courses and take all examinations following the Studies Induction and Orientation Stage and to write a bachelor's thesis as described in the curriculum.

 1. by a written or oral comprehensive examination of the courses of § 8 No3 lit a–f,
 2. by a course examination of the course according to § 8 No 3 lit g, for which course assessment is based on regular written and/or oral contribution by participants.

For the course examination, the course lecturer shall specify which type of examination (written and/or oral) and declare which assessment criteria will take place.

Positive completion of the course according to No 2 is the prerequisite for registration for the comprehensive examination according to No 1.

- (4) The performance of the Compulsory Module Constitutional and Administrative Law (§ 8 No 6) is assessed
 1. by a written and oral comprehensive examination of the courses of § 8 No 6 lit a–d,
 2. by a course examination of the course according to § 8 No 6 lit e, for which course assessment is based on regular written and/or oral contribution by participants.

For the course examination, the course lecturer shall specify which type of examination (written and/or oral) and declare which assessment criteria will take place.

Positive completion of the course according to No 2 is the prerequisite for registration for the comprehensive examination according to No 1.

- (5) For the written and oral comprehensive examination of the Compulsory Module Private Law (Para 3 No 1) and the Compulsory Module Constitutional and Administrative Law (Para 4 No 1) the following applies:
1. The attempt at the oral part of the examination requires successful completion of the written part of the examination.
 2. The comprehensive examination is completed by positive assessment of both parts of the examination.
 3. If the oral part of the examination is failed, only this part is to be repeated.
 4. For the overall mark, the marks of both examination parts are added, divided by 2, and – if necessary – the result of the division is rounded to a whole mark; in that case, five tenths are to be rounded.
- (6) (The performance of the Compulsory Module Criminal Law (§ 8 No 9) is assessed
1. by a written comprehensive examination of the courses of § 8 No 9 lit a and b,
 2. by a course examination of the course according to § 8 No 9 lit c, for which course assessment is based on regular written and/or oral contribution by participants.
- For the course examination, the course lecturer shall specify which type of examination (written and/or oral) and declare which assessment criteria will take place.
- Positive completion of the course according to No 2 is the prerequisite for registration for the comprehensive examination according to No 1.
- (7) The performance of the Compulsory Module Substantive Revenue Law (§ 8 No 10) is assessed by a written comprehensive examination of the courses of the compulsory modules.
- (8) The performance of the Compulsory Module Business Law (§ 8 No 11) is assessed
1. by an oral comprehensive examination of the courses according to § 8 Para 1 No 11 lit a and lit b,
 2. by a course examination of the course according to § 8 Para 1 No 11 lit c.
- The course examination assesses the knowledge and skills covered in the course in which course assessment is based on a single examination at the end of the course. For the course examination, the course lecturer shall specify which type of examination (written and/or oral) and declare which assessment criteria will take place.
- (9) For the modules in § 8 Para 1 No 12–17 and § 9 No 3–6, the examination regulations of the curriculum for the Bachelor's Programme Management and Economics at the School of Management and the Faculty of Economics and Statistics of the University of Innsbruck (University of Innsbruck Bulletin of 19 April 2007, Issue 23, No 186, in the relevant version) shall apply accordingly.
