Curriculum for the Bachelor's Programme in Philosophy
at the Faculty of Humanities 1, University of Innsbruck

§ 1 Profile

- (1) The Bachelor's Programme in Philosophy is grouped among the Humanities and Cultural Sciences.
- (2) The bachelor's programme introduces the field of philosophy and its branches. Students are made familiar with philosophical concepts, questions and theories and have a general overview of the philosophical disciplines as well as in-depth knowledge of selected branches. They learn developments and connections in terms of the history of ideas and culture and reflect the philosophical principles of society, culture and sciences as well as anthropological subjects such as the meaning of life, death and existential values.
- (3) Apart from philosophical expertise, the Bachelor's Programme in Philosophy also conveys a wide range of general skills applicable to different occupational fields. These include: recognizing problems and solving them methodically; independently accessing new and unusual fields of activity; analysing, criticizing, comparing and revising different points of view; appropriately arranging and systematizing a variety of texts and materials; expressing oneself precisely in writing; clearly presenting ideas in presentations; convincingly arguing in discussions; understanding empty phrases and ideological delusions; using moderation and presentation techniques reasonably; deciding and acting in a socially and ethically competent manner.
- (4) The bachelor's programme offers scientific education and vocation preparation in the fields mentioned before, and it qualifies for a relevant master's programme.

§ 2 Scope and duration

The Bachelor's Programme in Philosophy covers 180 ECTS-Credits, with a duration of six semesters.

§ 3 Courses and numbers of participants

- (1) Courses using continuous assessment:
  1. Lectures (VO) deal with main and/or specific topics of science as well as relevant methods and opinions. No max. number of participants.

2. Study orientation course (SL) conveys an overview on the main contents of the study programme, and it forms the basis for the decision to choose the study programme. Study orientation courses are with compulsory attendance. The maximum number of participants: 30
- (2) Courses using continuous assessment:
1. Lecture-practical courses (VU) serve as systematic acquisition, implementation and specialisation of scientific contents. No max. number of participants
  2. Introductory seminars (PS) are used to transfer basic knowledge of scientific work, as an introduction to scientific literature and in order to deal with exemplified problems of the discipline via presentations, discussions and written work or equivalent performance. Maximum number of participants: 30
  3. Seminars (SE) are courses for advanced scientific discussion. The participants are required to perform scientific work independently, particularly in form of a presentation and a written piece of work or equivalent performances. Maximum number of participants: 30

§ 4 Allocation of places in courses with a limited number of participants

In courses with a limited number of participants, course places are allocated as follows:

1. Students for whom the study duration would be extended due to the postponement are to be given priority.
2. If the criteria in Z 1 do not suffice, first, students, for whom this course is part of a compulsory module are to be given priority, and second, students of for whom this course is part of an elective module.
3. If the criteria in Z 1 and 2 do not suffice, the available places are drawn by random.

Registration requirements specified by the curriculum are to be followed.

§ 8 Bachelor's Thesis

- (1) A bachelor's thesis with a total of 15 ECTS-Credits is to be completed.

- (2) The bachelor's thesis is to be completed within a seminar from the compulsory or elective modules (with the exception of elective module 14) and is supervised by the relevant course lecturer. The performance of the bachelor's thesis is to be delivered in addition to the relevant bachelor's thesis course.
- (3) The bachelor's theses are to be submitted in paper form and in digital version. The form of the submission of the digital version is to be determined by the Director of Studies.

§ 9 Examination Regulations

The assessment of performance of a module (module examination) is to be carried out by course examinations. Course examinations are:

1. Examinations that assess the knowledge and skills covered in an individual lecture or in the studies induction and orientation stage which course assessment is based on a single examination at the end of the course. If a reading list is determined in a lecture, it forms part of the examination material. Before starting the course, the course lecturer shall specify and declare which type of examination (written and/or oral) will take place.
2. Courses with continuous assessment, for which course assessment is based on regular written and/or oral contribution by participants. Before starting the course, the course lecturer shall specify and declare which type of examination will take place.

§ 10 Academic Degree

Graduates of the Bachelor's Programme in Philosophy are awarded the academic degree „Bachelor of Arts“, abbreviated „BA“.

§ 11 Validity and Effect

- (1) The curriculum is effective as of 1 October 2009.
