Preamble: Qualification profile

The diploma programme “Business Law” provides academic vocational training for legal professionals in business and business-related fields. The graduates of this programme possess fundamental legal knowledge in content and method, in-depth knowledge of the specific legal fields needed for occupational activities and the necessary expertise in business and related branches. This university-level training programme provides graduates the ability to use the means of the law and the conditions of the legal system to pursue aims in business contexts, both nationally and internationally.

General

§ 1. Duration and total number of hours

The Diploma Programme in Business Law takes 9 semesters. The total number of semester hours is 152, of which 116 are in compulsory subjects, 20 are in bound elective subjects and 16 in elective subjects.

§ 2. Structure of the programme

(1) The programme consists of two parts:

- a) The first part of the programme (“foundations”) covers three semesters, with a total of 47 semester hours in the compulsory subjects.

- b) The second part (“fundamentals, extension, in-depth, specialization, interdisciplinary links”) covers six semesters, with 89 semester hours in compulsory subjects and bound elective subjects.
- (2) In addition, elective subjects amounting to 16 semester hours are to be completed. These are not assigned to a particular part of the study programme. However, students receive recommendations on which electives should be chosen and when they should be completed.

§ 3. ECTS-Credits

- (1) Course and subject examinations are allocated ECTS-Credits (European Credit Transfer System – ECTS, 253/2000/EG, Federal Bulletin No L 28 of 3 February 2000; “ECTS-Credits”). The number of credits for each subject is indicated.
- (2) A diploma thesis that has received a passing grade is allocated 20 ECTS-Credits.

§ 3a. Studies Induction and Orientation Stage

- (1) The Studies Induction and Orientation Stage covers one semester (30 ECTS-Credits) and offers students an overview of the main contents of the degree programme and its structure in order to provide a factual basis to assess the decision to pursue the chosen field.
- (2) The Studies Induction and Orientation Stage requires successful completion of the following course examinations, each of which may be repeated twice:
1. Introduction to Law (§ 4 Para 1, No 1 a) VO 2, 5 ECTS-Credits
 2. Introduction to Business and Law (§4 Para 1, No 1 b) VO 1, 2 ECTS-Credits
- (3) Successful completion of the examinations specified in paragraph 2 permits students to attend all further courses and take all examinations following the Studies Induction and Orientation Stage and to write the diploma thesis as described in the curriculum. Registration requirements specified by the curriculum are to be followed.
