Curriculum for the Master's Programme History at the Faculty of Philosophy and History of the University of Innsbruck

§1 Qualification Profile

- (1) The Master's Programme History is included in the group of study programmes of Humanities and Cultural Sciences.
- (2) The Master's Programme History serves as
 1. preparation for employment in the field of Historical Sciences,
 2. preparation for a doctoral programme in Historical Sciences or other areas of Humanities, Social or Cultural Sciences.
- (3) The Master's programme prepares its graduates for a wide range of working and professional fields
 1. in special branches of science,
 2. in subject-specific adult and professional education, in the field of archives, documentation and museums, in public service, in non-state and supra- and international organisations,
 3. in fields requiring independent intellect, logical, analytic and networked thinking, the ability to synthesis, team work, conceptual creativity as well as the independent use of and research of information sources and bodies of knowledge for teaching.
 4. The Master's programme is also a requirement for further postgraduate study programmes.
- (4) The Master's Programme History imparts the following competences:
 1. expert competence: advanced knowledge of historic categories, key data and interdependencies in their temporal and spatial diversity and their controversial discussion from different perspectives of research (cultural, political, social, economic etc.), which promote an understanding of different cultures in the past and present and make an factual-analytical approach to current problems possible that is preferably free from prejudice.
 2. competence to critically deal with historic gender constructions, religions, ideologies and media cultures,
 3. professionalism in managing information and knowledge,
 4. competence to independently use method and working techniques of historical sciences,
 5. competence to independently formulate scientific questions and to conduct independent academic work,
 6. ability to expand the acquired knowledge quickly and to get familiar with new topical areas,
 7. ability to present the acquired knowledge orally and in writing in a compact, precise, consistent and understandable way.

The listed knowledge and competences follow the recommendations of the CLIOHNET 2 network promoted by the European Commission.

- (5) The subject-specific competences and the key qualifications acquired during the study programme guarantee a complex education enabling the graduates to work in professional fields with very different requirements. The Master's programme is in particular the basis and preparation for a Doctoral programme and for an academic career.

§ 2 Scope and duration

The Master's Programme History covers 120 ECTS-Credits. This corresponds to a duration of the studies of four semesters.

§ 3 Admission

- (1) Admission to the Master's Programme History requires a relevant Bachelor's degree awarded by a University or a University of Applied Sciences ("Fachhochschule") or a relevant degree acquired at a recognised post-secondary educational institution home or abroad.
- (2) Relevant Bachelor's degrees are in any case the following Bachelor's programmes at the University of Innsbruck:
 1. History
 2. Classica et Orientalia
 3. Secondary School Teacher Training (General Education), subject: History, Social Studies, Political Education as well as the
 4. Diploma Programme in History and Social Studies/Political Education (Secondary School Teacher Training)
- (3) In the event that equivalence has been established in principle but with certain qualifications missing for full equivalence, supplemental examinations may be required by the rectorate. These examinations must be passed during the master's programme.

§ 4 Types of courses and maximum number of students per course

- (1) Lectures (VO) are courses held in lecture format and courses without continuous performance assessment. They introduce the research areas, methods and schools of thought for a given subject. No maximum number of participants.
- (2) Courses with continuous performance assessment:
 1. Lectures with practical elements (VU) focus on the practical treatment of concrete scientific tasks that are discussed during the lecture parts of the course. No maximum number of participants
 2. Practical courses (UE) focus on the practical treatment of concrete scientific tasks within an area. Maximum number of participants: 20, except practical courses of the excursion module: 25
 3. Seminars (SE) provide in-depth treatment of scientific topics through students' presentations and discussion thereof. Maximum number of participants: 20
 4. Excursions (EX) conducted outside the premises of the university, serve to demonstrate and deepen course contents. Maximum number of participants: 25

§ 5 Allocation of places in courses with a limited number of participants

In courses with a limited number of participants, course places are allocated as follows:

1. Students for whom the study duration would be extended due to the postponement are to be given priority.

2. If the criterion in No. 1 does not suffice, first, students who pass this course as part of a compulsory module come first, then students that pass the course as part of an elective module.
3. If the criteria in No. 1 and No. 2 do not suffice, then the places are raffled.

§ 7 Compulsory and Elective Modules

	Students have a command of the topics dealt with in the courses and are able to contextualize and interpret the acquired factual knowledge. They are confident in recognizing of relationships and in structuring historic routines and processes.
	Prerequisites: none

7.	Compulsory Module: Research Practice	h	ECTS-Credits
a.	UE Research Lab: Practical, research-led dealing with a selected topic; interpretation and preparation of sources; interpretation in the discourse of different methods; presentation of results with different media	2	5
b.	UE Research Lab: Practical, research-led dealing with a selected topic; interpretation and preparation of sources; interpretation in the discourse of different methods; presentation of results with different media,	2	5
	Total	4	10
	Learning Outcomes: Students undertake assisted research of sources and/or test their source-critical skills. They present their results in different media formats.
	Prerequisites: none

8.	Compulsory Module: Interdisciplinary Skills	h	ECTS-Credits
	Providing the availability of places, courses amounting to 10 ECTS-Credits must be selected from the curricular of Master's and or Diploma Programmes at the University of Innsbruck. It is recommended to pass courses from the programme of the Master's Programme in History.	-	10
	Total	-	10

	Learning Outcomes: This module aims at expanding the study programme and at the acquisition of additional qualifications.
	Prerequisites: The requirements specified by the respective curricula must be met.

9.	Compulsory Module: Preparation of the Master's Thesis	h	ECTS-Credits
	Specification of the research question, compilation of a selected bibliography, drafting of a theoretically and methodically founded synopsis, including the description of the further steps. Planning of an appropriate time frame for the writing of the Master's Thesis.	-	7.5
	Total	-	7.5
	Learning Outcomes: After successful completion of this module, the students will be able to write a brief summary of the content of the planned Master's Thesis (abstract), to outline an anticipated schedule and to conclude a written Master's Thesis agreement.
	Prerequisites: none

10.	Compulsory Module: Master's Thesis Defence	h	ECTS-Credits
	Final oral defence of the Master's Thesis before an examination board	-	2.5
	Total	-	2.5
	Learning Outcomes: Reflection of the Master's Thesis in the overall context of the Master's Programme History; Theoretical understanding, methodological basics, imparting of the results of the Master's Thesis and presentation skills are focused on.
	Prerequisites: positive evaluation of all other compulsory modules and required elective modules as well as the Master's Thesis

(2) Elective modules corresponding to 20 ECTS-Credits must be passed:

1.	Elective Module: Internship	h	ECTS-Credits
	Students pass an internship corresponding to 200 hours to test and apply their acquired knowledge and skills, to learn about the world of work and to get additional qualifications. This internship can be passed during the lecture-free period. It is recommended to make the internship abroad. The internship can be made after the conclusion of the second semester at the earliest. Before starting the practical experience it must be approved by the Director of Studies. The internship must be passed in pertinent intuitions acc. to §1 par. 3.
