

The University of Innsbruck invites applications for the position of University Professor of

Management with a focus on Financial Accounting

at the School of Management, Department of Accounting, Auditing and Taxation. The position will be based on a permanent civil-law employment contract with the University.

Responsibilities

The professor shall represent the subject of Financial Accounting in research and teaching.

The professor shall carry out empirical as well as conceptual research in financial accounting that is internationally recognized. Research should be based on both Austrian and International Financial Reporting Standards.

He/She should participate in the research centre "Accounting Theory and Research". She/He is expected to publish in international well established peer reviewed journals, cooperate with international research and/or project partners and raise external research funding.

The professor will teach Financial Accounting in the School's pertinent undergraduate, graduate and PhD programs.

Furthermore, the professor is expected to actively participate in the strategic development of the School of Management as well as in academic self-government.

Qualification requirements

- a) a pertinent degree in higher education in Austria or the equivalent abroad;
- b) a pertinent 'Habilitation' or equivalent qualification;
- c) publications in leading international peer-reviewed academic journals;
- d) participation in the relevant international research;
- e) experience in raising external research funding;
- f) excellent teaching skills;
- g) international experience in teaching and/or research pertinent to the discipline;
- h) ability to lead teams in research and teaching.

Applications should be submitted no later than

30th of May 2012

to the Leopold-Franzens-Universität Innsbruck, Fakultäten Servicestelle, Standort Karl-Rahner-Platz 3, A-6020 Innsbruck (fss-karlsruhnerplatz@uibk.ac.at).

The University of Innsbruck is committed to increasing the percentage of female employees especially in leading positions and therefore explicitly invites women to apply. In the case of equivalent qualifications, women will be given preference.

The application should include: CV including a description of the applicant's scholarly and professional career; list of scientific publications; list of ongoing and completed research projects (amount of funding, funding body, duration); planned research activities at the Department of Accounting, Auditing and Taxation; list of courses taught; electronic copies of five significant publications.

The application and all accompanying documents should be submitted electronically (CD-ROM or e-mail). Submission as a hardcopy is optional.

The basic salary is set down in the collective bargaining agreement for university employees. Professors are in the remuneration group A 1. For the position the gross salary is 4.571,20 Euro per month (14 x). Depending on qualification and experience a higher salary can be a topic in the negotiations with the rector. Beyond that the university offers attractive additional benefits (<http://www.uibk.ac.at/universitaet/zusatzleistungen/>).

The full, authoritative text in German (published in the official bulletin of the University of Innsbruck of 2nd of May 2012), comprehensive information on the School of Management and the Department of Accounting, Auditing and Taxation as well as additional information on the current status of the application process may be found at: <http://www.uibk.ac.at/fakultaeten/betriebswirtschaft/career.html>.

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Tilmann MÄRK
Rector