

The University of Innsbruck invites applications for the position of

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR OF

at the Department of Public Finance at the Faculty of Economics and Statistics.

The position will be based on a five-years' civil law employment contract with the university in accordance with § 99/1, UG 2002 [University Act].

Following the five-years' term the University intends to establish a chair according to § 98, UG 2002 assuming that conditions allow. The appointee to the current position will be welcome to apply for that position.

With its three research centers and their association in the research platform "Empirical and Experimental Economic Research", the Faculty positions itself as a national and international center for theory-based empirical and experimental economic research. With high-standard research achievements that are both internationally recognized and of great societal relevance the Faculty strengthens the university as a research-oriented institution.

Responsibilities

Applicants will be expected to carry out research in empirical economics and to demonstrate this with recognized international publications.

Furthermore, active cooperation within the research center "Tourism and Recreation" – including both basic and applied research in a tourism context – and in the research platform "Empirical and Experimental Economic Research" is also required.

The candidate will be expected to teach in the Bachelor's Program "Economy, Health and Sports Tourism", "Sports Management" and "Management and Economics", as well as in the Master Program "Applied Economics" and the PhD-Program in "Economics".

Participation in academic administration is taken for granted.

Eligibility requirements include a pertinent degree in higher education, a pertinent 'habilitation' [post-doctoral qualification for academic careers] or comparable qualification, publications in international peer-reviewed journals, proven involvement in international research and experience in raising external research funds.

The University of Innsbruck is committed to increasing the percentage of female employees, especially in leading positions and therefore explicitly invites women to apply. In the case of equivalent qualifications, women will be given preference.

Applications must reach us at the latest by February 19th, 2016 and should include the standard documentation (esp. curriculum vitae, publications list, description of completed, current and intended research, five most important works). All documents have to be submitted in digital form (CD-ROM, e-mail, etc.). Hard copies (paper) are optional. Please send the documents to: Leopold-Franzens-Universität Innsbruck, Fakultäten Servicestelle, Standort Karl-Rahner-Platz 3, A-6020 Innsbruck (mailto: fss-karlsruhnerplatz@uibk.ac.at).

The basic salary is set down in the collective bargaining agreement for university employees. Professors are in the remuneration group A 1. For the position the monthly salary before tax is 4.782,40 Euro (14 x). Depending on qualification and experience a higher salary can be a topic in the negotiations with the rector. Beyond that the university offers attractive additional benefits (<http://www.uibk.ac.at/universitaet/zusatzleistungen/>).
