

The University of Innsbruck invites applications for the position of a

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR OF ECONOMICS IN PARTICULAR PUBLIC ECONOMICS

at the Department of Public Finance at the Faculty of Economics and Statistics.

The position will be tenured based on a civil law employment contract with the university in accordance with § 98, UG 2002 [University Act].

With its research centers and their association in the research platform “Empirical and Experimental Economic Research”, the Faculty positions itself as a national and international center for theory-based empirical and experimental economic research. With high-standard research achievements that are both internationally recognized and of great societal relevance the Faculty strengthens the university as a research-oriented institution.

Responsibilities

Representing the discipline in both research and teaching.

Applicants will be expected to carry out successful research in public economics and to demonstrate this with recognized international publications. Active collaboration within the research platform “Empirical and Experimental Economic Research” (<https://www.uibk.ac.at/eeecon/>) and the associated research centers will be expected (https://www.uibk.ac.at/fakultaeten/volkswirtschaft\_und\_statistik/forschung/index.html.en).

The candidate’s teaching obligations will be in the area of Economics in particular Public Economics at all levels (Bachelor, Master, PhD program).

Participation in academic administration is taken for granted.

Eligibility requirements include a pertinent degree in higher education, a pertinent ‘habilitation’ [post-doctoral qualification for academic careers] or comparable qualification, publications in international peer-reviewed journals, proven involvement in international research, experience in raising external research funds and distinctive didactic skills.

The University of Innsbruck is committed to increasing the percentage of female employees, especially in leading positions and therefore explicitly invites women to apply. In the case of equivalent qualifications, women will be given preference.

Applications must reach us at the latest by January 26th, 2018 and should include the standard documentation (esp. curriculum vitae, publications list, description of completed, current and intended research, five most important works). All documents have to be submitted in digital form (CD-ROM, e-mail, etc.). Hard copies (paper) are optional. Please send the documents to: Leopold-Franzens-Universität Innsbruck, Fakultäten Servicestelle, Standort Karl-Rahner-Platz 3, A-6020 Innsbruck (mailto: fss-karlrahnerplatz@uibk.ac.at).

The basic salary is set down in the collective bargaining agreement for university employees. Professors are in the remuneration group A 1. For this position the monthly salary before tax is 4.891,10 Euro (14 x). Depending on qualification and experience a higher salary can be a topic in the negotiations with the rector. Beyond that the university offers attractive additional benefits (<http://www.uibk.ac.at/universitaet/zusatzleistungen/>).
