
FSP Workshop
“Superdiversity and Transnational Capital: Current Debates and Tendencies in Migration Research”

Date: 27/2/2018

Location: Claudiana, Herzog-Friedrich-Straße 3

Programme

- 9.00–9.15 am: Welcome and introduction by Dirk Rupnow and Silke Meyer
- 9.15–10.15 am: Mireillo Rosello: Searching for a Hyper-diverse Epistemology: Outside/In and Affects, response by Philip Vergeiner and Judith Welz
- 10.15–10.45 am: Coffee break
- 10.45–11.45 am: Marlene Gärtner: Narrating migration at home and abroad. Global power dynamics and their master narratives in Cameroon and the Cameroonian diaspora, response by Chiara Massaroni
- 11.45–12.45 am: Miriam Gutekunst: The contested regulation of migration through marriage. An ethnographic border regime analysis between Morocco and Germany, response by Claudius Ströhle and Jennifer Wirth
- 12.45–2 pm: Lunch break
- 2.00–2.30 pm: Sister Stella Essien: Cultural Conflict in South-South Nigeria
- 2.30–3.30 pm: Tanja Višić: Ethnography of living arrangements, informal work and the transnational care: Experiences of domestic workers from the former Yugoslavia in Germany, response Selvihan Akkaya
- 3.30–4.00 pm: Coffee break
- 4.00–5.00 pm: Dillon Newton: Migration, Capital and Belonging: A Narrative Exploration of Longsight, Manchester, response by Fatma Haron and Teresa Millesi
- 5.00–6.00 pm: Irene Götz: Age and Migration – Case studies of elderly women, response by Frauke Schacht
- 6.00–6.15 pm: Closing remarks
- 7 pm: Dinner at the restaurant Kunstpause, Museumstraße 15