

Dear colleagues,

We kindly ask you to forward this information to students of language departments who may be interested in a 6 month language exchange project in Russia in 2010. We invite last year students.

CALL FOR FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHERS

We are looking for creative teachers of English, German, Finnish, Spanish, Italian and French for participating in a 6 month language exchange project in Russia. The language project is aimed, on the one hand, at acquainting Russian children, youth and adults with diversity of European languages and cultures. On the other hand, foreign teachers living in host families and communicating with Russian people get to know Russia and the Russian language.

The candidate teacher should meet the following criteria:

- have excellent knowledge of at least two European languages
(English is obligatory)
- have a diploma in linguistics, have some teaching experience and basic skills in designing the curriculum
- be able to work as a foreign language teacher in Russia during 6 months from January till June 2010
- be able to obtain Russian visa

We invite last year students of the language departments. Russian is NOT required.

Teachers are expected to perform the following tasks: designing the curriculum of the language course, giving 20 language hours per week, participate in methodic seminars for teachers, participate in intercultural activities.

Conditions: accommodation in Russian families is provided free, visa support is provided, teachers will be granted a honorarium for their work.

The deadline for applications is June 30, 2009.
