
FSP workshop „Superdiversity and transnational capital. Current debates and tendencies in migration research

Date: 27/2/2018

Location: Claudiana

Programme (dated 2.11.2017, all working titles)

9.00-9.15 am: Welcome and introduction by Dirk Rupnow and Silke Meyer

9.15-10.15 am: Mireillo Rosello (title tba), response by Philip Vergeiner, Judith Welz and Adham Hamed

10.15-10.45 am: Coffee break

10.45-11.45 am: Marlene Gärtner: Narrating migration at home and abroad. Global power dynamics and their master narratives in Cameroon and the Cameroonian diaspora (ongoing PhD), response by Mario Casale, Theresa Frank and Chiara Massaroni

11.45-12.45 am: Miriam Gutekunst: Migration regime through Marriage. Conflict and transversal movement at Europe's margins (finished PhD), response by Claudius Ströhle and Jennifer Wirth

12.45-2 pm: Lunch break

2.00-3.00 pm: Tanja Višić: Ethnography of living arrangements, informal work and the transnational care: Experiences of domestic workers from the former Yugoslavia in Germany (ongoing PhD), response by Jenny Hausberger and Selvihan Akkaya

3.00-3.30 pm: Coffee break

3.30-4.30 pm: Dillon Newton: Migration, Capital and Belonging: A Narrative Exploration of Longsight, Manchester (ongoing PhD), response by Lena Drummer and Florian Ohnmacht

4.30-5.30 pm: Irene Götz: Precarious retirement, response by Marcel Amoser and Frauke Schacht

5.30-6.00 pm: Final discussion

Dinner at the restaurant Himal, Universitätsstraße 13, Innsbruck