

Research Workshop: Children born of war and processes of state and nation building

May 22nd 2024, Universität Innsbruck, Austria

Program

9.30 Introduction and Session I

Flavia Guerrini: Austrian 'occupation children' and their mothers: reflections on gender and national identity

Elke Kleinau: 'Occupation children' in Germany - catalysts in the process of state and nation building?

Philipp Rohrbach: The Venezuelan Children's Project. Intercountry adoptions of Austrian children to the South American Country after World War II

11.10 Coffee break

11.30 Session II

Tatjana Takševa and Ajna Jusic: Bosnian Children Born of War as Agents of Political Change

Karin Priem: Children Born of War as a Shared History: David Seymour's Photographs of "Bastard" Children in Vienna, 1948

Tereza Jiroutová Kynčlová: Weapons of War: Mothering in Jasmila Žbanić's Grbavica

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Summary and discussion

Venue: Universität Innsbruck, Innrain 52a, 6020 Innsbruck, room 08N030 (Medienraum, 8th floor)

Limited places for further participants, please write to flavia.guerrini@uibk.ac.at if you are interested.

Organized by Flavia Guerrini (Universität Innsbruck) and Tatjana Takševa (Saint Mary's University, Canada)