

Research Seminar at Department of Sport Science (ISW)

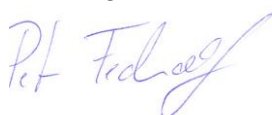

Dear colleagues,

You are cordially invited to the biweekly WS2015/16 ISW Research Seminar. The seminar will take place every 1st and 3rd Wednesday 10 to 11am in lecture room H2. Seminar language will be English. The format of the seminar is 15-30min presentation followed by questions from the audience.

Date	Presenter	Topic
7.10.2015	Robert Eberle	How to generate injury prone situations for noncontact ACL injuries by Monte Carlo Simulation
21.10.2015	Aude-Clémence Doix	Voluntary and electrically elicited muscle fatigue
4.11.2015	Luis Alegre Durán	Functional significance of muscle architecture: adaptations to training and disuse
18.11.2015	Kultida Klarod	Eccentric exercise with hypoxia increase antioxidant capacity in Pre-diabetic people.
2.12.2015	Lisa Müller	Relative age effect
16.12.2015	Michael Kennedy	tbd
20.1.2015	Thomas Haid	Characteristics of postural control in stable and unstable sub-groups of old and young adults
3.2.2015	Martin Schnitzer	The Legacies of the Innsbruck 2012 Winter Youth Olympic Games as Perceived by the Local Youth

If you have questions, or to reserve your spot as a presenter in the summer semester, please contact me by email peter.federolf@uibk.ac.at.

Kind regards,

Peter Federolf