

ÖSTERREICH - KANADA: DIE BERGE, DIE UNS VERBINDEN

GASTVORTRAG

Wanderings of a Mountain Guide: The Letters of Conrad Kain, 1906-1933 Zac Robinson (University of Alberta)

Datum: 23. Oktober 2012, 18h

Ort: Museum, Universitätshauptgebäude (3. Stock), Innrain 52

In 1906, Conrad Kain (1884-1934), a mountain guide from Lower Austria, left Europe for an odyssey of adventure and climbing that took him around the world, ultimately to Canada. This talk examines this remarkable life, as well as Kain's literary aspirations, through a collection of private letters written by Kain to an early client from Reichenau an der Rax, Amelie Malek (1871-1941), who became a dear life-long friend.

Zac Robinson, PhD, is a historian and Assistant Professor in the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Alberta in Edmonton.

Im Anschluss lädt der Oesterreichische Alpenverein zu einem Empfang.

GASTVORTRAG

Frozen Lungs and Tired Bodies: Challenges of Optimizing Human Performance in Canada Michael Kennedy (University of Alberta)

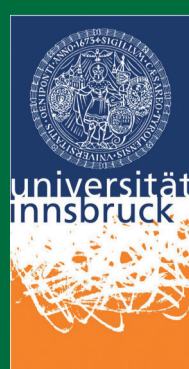

Datum: 25. Oktober 2012, 18h

Ort: Museum, Universitätshauptgebäude (3. Stock), Innrain 52

This talk will explore Michael Kennedy's experiences as an applied sport scientist, coach, wax technician and academic in the Canadian sport system.

Michael Kennedy, PhD, is an Assistant Professor in the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Alberta in Edmonton.

Im Anschluss lädt der Oesterreichische Alpenverein zu einem Empfang.

INNS' BRUCK

Wir danken dem OeAV für die Unterstützung.

