

Comparing Russian as a Foreign Language (RFL) Textbooks for Czech- and German-Speaking Learners

This presentation concludes a two-year collaboration between the University of Innsbruck and Masaryk University Brno, exploring how different aspects, e.g. mediation, irregular verbs, and colloquial Russian, are represented in RFL textbooks for Czech- and German-speaking learners (A1-B1). We warmly invite all interested colleagues and students to attend this event.

More information here

Organisation and Moderation:
Magdalena Kaltseis

(Department of Slavonic Studies & Department of Subject-Specific Education, University of Innsbruck)

MI, 29.10.2025, 14:00-15:00

LektorInnenzimmer 40503 (Geiwi, 5th floor)