

ALI-ASGHAR PAYRAVI symposia and publications at UC Irvine Jordan Center for Persian Studies and Culture

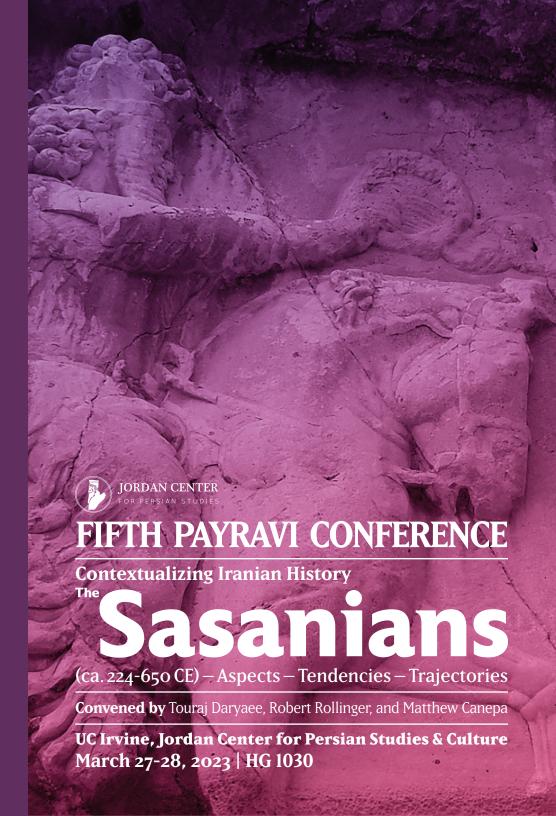

Mr. Payravi was an enthusiast and lover of ancient Iranian history who collected and read many books on ancient Iran. Previously, the Payravi Family provided two graduate fellowships for foreign students interested in pursuing ancient Iranian history at UC Irvine.

Through the generosity of the late Mr.

Ali-Asghar Payravi and his family the Dr. Samuel M. Jordan Center for Persian Studies at the University of California, Irvine will host a conference and subsequent publications which will cover five periods in Iranian history: The Iranian Plateau and its Histories, Achaemenid; Hellenistic; Arsacid; and Sasanian Empires. The fifth conference is organized by Professor Touraj Daryaee, Director of Dr. Samuel M. Jordan Center for Persian Studies & Culture at University of California, Irvine, Professor Robert Rollinger of the Institute fur Alte Geschichte und Altorientalistik at the University of Innsbruck, and Professor Matthew Canepa, Elahe Omidyar Mir-Djalali Presidential Chair in Art History and Archaeology of Ancient Iran at University of California, Irvine.
