

GERECHT? Geschichten über soziale Ungleichheiten

Leseperformance

The exhibition turns into a stage. Students from the University of Innsbruck present their own texts – short fiction, poems, and reflective vignettes – amid the very exhibits that inspired them. Visitors are invited to listen, reflect and engage in a literary exploration of the objects and their stories that opens up new perspectives on social justice, both personal and artistic, at the heart of the museum.

Featuring texts written in English by participants of the Creative Writing Project, led by Violet Stathopoulou-Vais, Department of English, University of Innsbruck, in cooperation with Anna Amann, Kulturvermittlerin, Tiroler Landesmuseen.
