

3rd IDS Workshop University of Innsbruck

HS2 SOWI, September 20, 2023, 9am

Program

0900	Welcome address
0905	Using decision markets to select studies for replication: Results of the Mechanical Turk replication project	Felix Holzmeister
0925	Does unfairness hurt women? The effects of losing unfair competitions	Marica Valente
0945	The decay of cay	Moritz Dauber
1005	A survey experiment on second-hand consumption	Luisa Lorè
1025	Who chooses to go "green"? First results of a lab study about the inter-individual differences in pro-environmental decision-making	Jana Kesenheimer
1045	Coffee Break
1120	Jumping to racial prejudice	Katharina Zimmermann
1140	Loyalty proneness - fact or fiction? Revisiting consumer choice consistency across categories	Andreas Plank
1200	How to design the ask? Funding units vs. giving money	Raphael Epperson
1220	Keynote The intrinsic value of effort: What are the conditions that make people seek and enjoy difficulty?	Veronika Job (U of Vienna)
1315	Joint Lunch (supported by the research platform EPOS)

Information for all presenters: given the large number of talks, each slot is limited to 20 minutes. This means that presentations should be timed for 15 minutes to keep 5 minutes for discussion. We will enforce strict time discipline!

Please REGISTER your participation until September 6, 2023, 24:00 here: <https://framadate.uibk.ac.at/studs.php?sondage=7vkceocbzt14njk>

Organizers: Sabine Ferdik, Michael Kirchler, Dilay Yagmur, and Eva Zipperle-Mirwald. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at ids@uibk.ac.at.