

AUSTRO-CANADIAN ANIMAL ETHICS WORKSHOP

ANIMAL RIGHTS IN TODAY'S SOCIETY

9:00-9:15

Opening Remarks and Introduction

Claudia Paganini (Organizer of the Workshop)

Winfried Löffler (Member of the CSC's Advisory Board)

9:15-10:45

Animals, Violence, and Trans-Species Social Justice

John Sorenson (Brock University)

Animal Subjectivity and Agency. A Contribution to Zoopolis

Reingard Spannring (University of Innsbruck)

11:15-12:45

Literary Animal Studies –

A Closer Look at the Social Benefits of Literature

Gabriela Kompatscher-Gufler

(University of Innsbruck)

Denialism and Meat Consumption

Tomaž Grušovnik (University of Primorska)

15:00-16:30

Respond to the Needs and Abilities of Animals.

An Animal-Ethical Categorical Imperative

Martin M. Lintner

(Philosophical-Theological College Brixen)

The Need for Metaethical Clarification in Animal Ethics

Claudia Paganini (University of Innsbruck)

November 3, 2017, 9:00 am, Faculty of Catholic Theology

Dekanatssitzungssaal, Karl-Rahner-Platz 1, first floor

Um Anmeldung wird gebeten: claudia.paganini@uibk.ac.at

Weitere Informationen: www.uibk.ac.at/canada/events/

 universität innsbruck

Zentrum für Kanadastudien
Human-Animal Studies
Institut für Christliche Philosophie