

Universität Innsbruck - Institut für Christliche Philosophie

Gastvortrag

Organisation und Kontakt: Christoph Jäger

---

Linda Zagzebski (Oklahoma)

Omnisubjectivity

Mittwoch, 5. Juni 2013, 18.00 s.t.
Seminarraum VI (Karl-Rahner-Platz 3)

In this talk I propose a new divine attribute I call omnisubjectivity. It is the property of having a complete and perfect grasp of every conscious state of every conscious being from the perspective of that being. I argue that omnisubjectivity is entailed by omniscience and by omnipresence, and is implied by common practices of Christian prayer. I defend it against the charge that God is morally sullied by too close a grasp of evil conscious states, and suggest that doctrines of grace and sanctification are enhanced by the existence of this attribute.

Linda Zagzebski ist George Lynn Cross Research Professor und Kingfisher College Chair of the Philosophy of Religion and Ethics an der University of Oklahoma. Sie war Präsidentin der American Catholic Philosophical Association und der Society of Christian Philosophers. Wichtige Buchpublikationen: Epistemic Authority – A Theory of Trust, Authority, and Autonomy in Belief (2012); On Epistemology (2008); On Philosophy of Religion: An Historical Introduction; Divine Motivation Theory (2004); Virtues of the Mind (1996); The Dilemma of Foreknowledge and Freedom (1991).

Alle Interessent/innen sind herzlich eingeladen!