

Raymund Schwager — Innsbrucker Religionspolitologische Vorlesungen

David Cayley – CBC Radio
*Toronto

Ivan Illich's Apocalyptic Reflections on the Connection Between Christianity and Modernity

31. Mai 2007

Ort: Claudiasaal, Herzog-Friedrich-Straße 3/2. Stock

Zeit: 19.30 Uhr

Begrüßung: Ursula Moser – Prof. für Romanistik; Leiterin des Zentrums für Kanadastudien, Universität Innsbruck

- David Cayley was born in Toronto in 1946 and received his undergraduate education at Harvard, graduating in 1966.
- Since 1968 he has been working for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's radio service (CBC Radio). He is a producer as well as a writer.
- A selection of his radio programmes – in relation to his lecture: "Enlightened by Love: The Thought of Simone Weil"; "The Scapegoat: René Girard's Anthropology of Violence and Religion"; "The Corruption of Christianity: Ivan Illich on Gospel, Church, and Society"
- A selection of publications:
  - The Rivers North of the Future: The Testament of Ivan Illich. Toronto 2005.
  - Expanding Prison: The Crisis in Crime and Punishment and the Search for Alternatives. Cleveland 1999.
  - Age of Ecology: The Environment of Cbc Radio's Idea. Toronto 1994.

In Discussion with:

Martina Kaller-Dietrich – Prof. für Neuere Geschichte an der Univ. Wien

- Die Buchpublikation mit dem Arbeitstitel „Ivan Illich – eine Biographie“ wird 2007 erscheinen

Wolfgang Palaver – Prof. für Christl. Gesellschaftslehre an der Univ. Innsbruck