

“Battle Descriptions as Literary Texts: a Comparative Approach” Interdisciplinary Conference, Innsbruck, 15th–17th May 2017

Conference Venue: Claudiana, Herzog-Friedrich-Str. 3, Claudiasaal (2nd floor)

Monday, 15th May 2017

08:30 – 09:00 Registration

09:00 – 09:15 Welcome address and opening of the conference:
Univ.-Prof. Dr. Sebastian Donat, Dean of the Faculty of Humanities 2 assoz. Prof. Dr. Florian Schaffenrath, Director of the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Neo-Latin Studies

Session 1: The Ancient Near East

09:15 – 10:00 Marcos Such-Gutiérrez (Madrid): The Year-Names as Source for Battle Descriptions in the 3rd Millennium BC

10:00 – 10:45 Pavel Cech (Prague): Battle Descriptions in Ugarit: Much Ado About Nothing

10:45 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 11:45 Chikako Watanabe (Osaka) / Jamie Novotny (Munich): Recording an Assyrian Battle:
A Look at the Assyrian-Elamite Conflict at Til-Tuba in Textual and Visual Sources

11:45 – 12:30 Hilmar Klinkott (Kiel): Victor without Victory – to the Lack of Battle Descriptions in Achaemenid Royal Representation

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch break

Session 1: The Ancient Near East (continued)

14:00 – 14:45 Wolfgang Oswald (Tübingen): Battle Descriptions in the Hebrew Bible: An Overview with Special Attention to the Book of Joshua

Session 2: The Classical World

14:45 – 15:30 Oliver Stoll (Passau): „Eine Schlacht wie keine andere“ – alles nur Literatur, oder was? Agesilaos II., Xenophon und die Schlacht bei Koroneia (14. August, 394 v. Chr.)

15:30 – 16:15 Kai Ruffing (Kassel): The Battle of Plataea (479 BC)

16:15 – 16:30 Coffee break

16:30 – 17:15 Christian Mileta (Halle / Innsbruck): The Battle of Thermopylae 2.0 at the Persian Gates

Keynote Lecture

17:30 – 18:30 Reinhold Bichler (Innsbruck): The Battle of Gaugamela. A Case Study and Some General Methodological Considerations

Official reception

Tuesday, 16th May 2017

Session 2: The Classical World (continued)

09:00 – 09:45 Sven Günther (Changchun): Conversus ad pacem ... (Flor. 2.34.65) – Battle Descriptions in Florus Reconsidered

09:45 – 10:30 Simon Lentzsch (Cologne): Battle Descriptions in T. Livius

10:30 – 10:45 Coffee break

Session 3: Towards Modernity: the Medieval and Early Modern World

- 10:45 – 11:30 Johannes Gießauf (Graz): Fighting the Devil's Envoys. Telling the Story of the Mongol Invasion 1241
- 11:30 – 12:15 Izabela Wilkosz (Berlin): „Dead or alive“ – The Clash of Cultures and Values During the Conquest of the Aztec Empire
- 12:15 – 14:00 Lunch break

Session 3: Towards Modernity: the Medieval and Early Modern World (continued)

- 14:00 – 14:45 Martin Wagendorfer (Innsbruck): Sallusts Schlachtenberichte (und Reden vor der Schlacht) im italienischen Humanismus
- 14:45 – 15:30 Dennis Pulina (Freiburg): Violence as Part of Heroization Techniques in Latin Epic of the Italian Quattrocento
- 15:30 – 15:45 Coffee break

Session 4: A Battle to remember: Famous Battles in History and Literature

- 15:45 – 16:30 Johanna Luggin (Innsbruck / Freiburg): A Battle of Nations: a Poetic Description of the Battle of Austerlitz (1805)
- 16:30 – 17:15 Sonja Koroliov (Innsbruck): Elusive Action in Tolstoy's Descriptions of Battle in War and Peace

Wednesday, 17th May 2017

Session 4: A Battle to remember: Famous Battles in History and Literature (continued)

- 09:00 – 09:45 Friedrich Pöhl (Innsbruck): The Battle of the Little Bighorn and the Myth of a Heroic Struggle of Thermopylaean Proportions
- 09:45 – 10:30 Florian Schaffenrath (Innsbruck): The Siege of Vienna in Cossonius' Epic Poem Paeonnasteis
- 10:30 – 10:45 Coffee break
- 10:45 – 11:30 Magdalena Gronau (Erfurt): Descriptions of Ancient Battles in German 19th and 20th Century Classical Studies
- 11:30 – 12:15 Martin Bauer (Innsbruck): Parodistic Battle Descriptions: The Batrachomyomachia
- 12:15 – 12:45 Closing of the conference

Organisation and Contact:

Johanna Luggin (Innsbruck/Freiburg) johanna.luggin@neolatin.lbg.ac.at

Sebastian Fink (Kassel)
sebastian.fink@uni-kassel.de

Sponsored by:

Ludwig Boltzmann Institut
Neulatinische Studien

U N I K A S S E L
V E R S I T Ä T

